

This should not be weakened. no changes need to be made except to make it stronger with no cut of date so we don't have to keep reinstating our need for this service. I appreciate that I am not recieving calls for sales and such. We should be allowed to keep our no call status as it is. Stop weakening our status as americans who do not wish to be disturbed by nonsense calls that take away time from our families.